Civil Side No. 295 of 2006

Mr. C. Lucas for the Plaintiff

ORDER
INTERIM INJUNCTION

Gaswaga, J

Being satisfied, from the evidence on record, of the urgency of the present application and the imminent continuation of construction works on the defendant's site by a third party, and further fears of the applicants substantial loose construction materials on site and the unquantified incomplete works being consumed and integrated in the said third party's execution of works, I grant the application and order that:-

- (i) An interim injunction issues against the respondent pending the determination of C.S No. 295/2006 (between the parties herein) ordering the respondents, their agents or servants or otherwise to forthwith cease and refrain from carrying out further construction works on the said site.

The said interim injunction is issued at the peril and risk of the applicant and is to remain in force until further ordered by this Court. Notice is to be given to all parties and the matter is made returnable on Tuesday, 30th January, 2007 at 9am.
